

land, and the offer of Mr. and Mrs. Fogle is the highest and best I could obtain, and I believe it to be for the benefit and advantage of all the parties interested in said real estate that the same be sold, and particularly for the benefit and advantage of the infants, as we are getting practically no revenue from the land and must pay taxes thereon, and as my Mother paid but $236.25 for the property originally, we think the property indeed well sold at the price offered and greatly desire it to be sold at that price.

To the general interrogatory propounded by the Examiner:

I cannot think of anything else now.
